Summary: On January 23, 2006, Sarah DeYoung, Executive Director of the California Association of Competitive Telephone Companies (CALTEL), met with Tim Sullivan, advisor to Cmmr. Chong, in San Francisco. Also present were Tim Sullivan, advisor to Cmmr. Chong, and Joseph Faber, counsel to CALTEL. CALTEL representatives discussed the proposed decision (PD) and, specifically, the CALTEL's recommendation that the Commission include consideration of its wholesale price caps proposal in an upcoming phase of this proceeding. CALTEL representatives explained why the wholesale price caps structure was more advantageous than the UNE nomination process proposed in the PD. CALTEL representatives also explained that the CALTEL proposal did not require the Commission to make any findings about whether such a structure should be adopted, but merely called for the Commission to open a new phase of this proceeding.

Summary: On January 24, 2006, Edward G. Poole, Counsel for the University of California Regents on behalf of the University of California, Davis (UC Davis) met with David Gamson, advisor to Cmmr. Also present were Irene Moosen, counsel for the University of California Regents on behalf of the UC Davis, and Maric Munn, Associate Director for Energy and Utilities Planning for the Office of the President, and Maurice Hollman, Associate Vice Chancellor for Facilities – Operations and Maintenance, of the UC Davis. The UC Davis representatives argued that the tariff provisions sought to be implemented were not consistent with previous Commission decisions regarding the Cost Responsibility Surcharge or the record in the proceeding. The UC Davis representatives urged the Commission to review the draft decision and consider issuing an alternate decision to cure the deficiencies.

1/27/06 A04-06-030 City of Petaluma, for an order authorizing the relocation of one at-grade crossing of the tracks of the Sonoma Marin Area Rail Transit District in the City of Petaluma, County of Sonoma.

Summary: LATE FILED. On January 23, 2006, Mike Healy, a member of the City Council of the City of Petaluma (City) and of the Board of Directors of the Sonoma Marin Area Rail Transit District (SMART), had a telephone conference with Cmmr. Peevey. Also present on the telephone call were Lester Wong, advisor to Cmmr. Peevey, Michael Bierman, City Manager, and Jose E. Guzman, Jr., special counsel, for the City, and Vincent Smith and Paul Andronico of Basin Street Properties. Guzman described the conditions imposed by the draft decision (DD) in approving the at-grade crossing. Guzman stated that the condition that the authorization for the crossing expires as soon as passenger train traffic is initiated on the line made no sense in light of the Commission's unconditional approval of other at-grade crossings in Los Angeles and San Jose. Healy and Bierman explained how the condition presented an untenable situation for the City. Guzman stated that the City would be happy to consult with the Commission once it became clear that SMART commuter service would be instituted. Guzman noted, however, that it was the automatic expiration feature of the DD that created the untenable situation for the City in deciding whether and how to proceed with development plans for the downtown area which the City had carefully planned for with its Central Petaluma Specific Plan.

Grueneich, at Peet's Coffee, 601 Van Ness Avenue, in San Francisco. Blattner urged the Commission to approve SDG&E's Critical Peak Pricing (CPP) settlement by March 2, 2006. Blattner stated that the Energy Action Plan and Commission decisions support moving to dynamic pricing and that the settlement maintains positive momentum toward that goal. Blattner added that SDG&E has committed to obtaining consent from customers before switching them to the default CPP tariff. Blattner recommended that subsequent SPP issues be addressed in the Advanced Metering Infrastructure docket.

Summary: On January 25, 2006, Thomas J. MacBride, Jr., counsel for NOS Communications, Inc. (NOS), met with Robert Lane, advisor to Cmmr. Bohn, in San Francisco. MacBride explained that the January 12, 2006 protest to the application by the Consumer Protection and Safety Division contravened Section 5.9 of a settlement entered into in I02-05-001. Summary: On January 25, 2006, Thomas J. MacBride, Jr., counsel for Affinity Networks Incorporated (Affinity), met with Robert Lane, advisor to Cmmr. Bohn, in San Francisco. MacBride explained that the January 12, 2006 protest to the application by the Consumer Protection and Safety Division contravened Section 5.9 of a settlement entered into in I02-05-001. MacBride noted that the authority being sought in the Application was not for the purpose of market entry but simply to seek the ability to provide service on a facilities basis.
